II. FINDINGS

The Court FINDS:

2.1 ☐ The At-Risk Youth petition should be dismissed:

2.2 ☐ The petition should be approved because a preponderance of the evidence has established that:

☐ Petitioner(s) has/have the right to legal custody of the child.

☐ The child is not the subject of a dependency proceeding under RCW Chapter 13.34.

☐ The child is an at-risk youth because s/he:

☐ has been absent from home more than seventy-two (72) consecutive hours without parental consent;

☐ Is beyond parental control such that the child's behavior substantially endangers the health, safety, or welfare of the child or other person.

☐ Has a serious substance abuse problem and there are no pending charges related to substance abuse.

- 2.3 ☐ Court intervention and services are necessary to assist the petitioner(s) to maintain care, custody, and control of the child.
- 2.4 ☐ Alternatives to court intervention have been attempted.
- ☐ There is good cause why alternatives to court intervention have not been attempted.

III. ORDER

IT IS ORDERED

- 3.1 ☐ The petition is dismissed and the child shall return or remain at home.
- ☐ The petition is approved. The child shall reside in the parental home or in an out-of-home placement approved by the parent(s)
- 3.2 ☐ The Department of Social and Health Services shall prepare and submit a disposition plan within 14 days of this order.
- 3.3 ☐ The person or agency with which the child is placed, shall have full power to authorize all necessary educational, routine and emergency medical, dental, or psychological care as recommended by the child's treating doctor or psychologist.
- 3.4 ☐ The parties shall follow the attached conditions in Addendum A.
